Educational and performance opportunities are open to any member 18 and under. Members are encouraged to attend each event. Teachers and community members are welcome to attend for their own benefit and in support of Junior Pro Art and its members. There are no annual dues to participate in JPA 2007-2008; however, a $5 members' fee is appreciated at each event to defray costs.

Events are held at the First Unitarian Universalist Society of Syracuse, located at the corner of Waring and Nottingham Roads, on the proposed Sundays listed below at 7 p.m. Generally, each event will include not only performance opportunities but also interactive topics of musical interest lead by masters in our community. Performers may bring their own accompanist; however, JPA has arranged to have one present at each event for your benefit and convenience with no additional fee. Students wishing to perform should arrive by 6:45 p.m. and sign in for performance on a first-come, first-served basis. If students are not able to perform due to time constraints, they will have priority at the next event (excluding May 18). Performance and optional critical feedback time is limited to 15 minutes per student.

Proposed Events/Topics:

September 23, "Working with an Accompanist"
October 21, "Minding Your Musical Manners"
November 18, "Demystifying the College Audition"
December 16, January 20, February 24, March 23, April 20*
May 18, Master Class with Maestro Daniel Hege

*Topics to be determined by the JPA leadership board.
